

REPORT OF SHORT TERM TRAINING PROGRAMME

Dates: 21st Oct, 2013 to 25th Oct, 2013

Venue: Indian Institute of Management Lucknow, Noida Campus

The five day short term training programme on the topic of 'Capacity Enhancement of Academic Administrators' was conducted by Indian Institute of Management Lucknow, Noida Campus. The resource persons were the faculty of the IIM, Lucknow. Some eminent experts from other government organizations also delivered their lectures.

The experts started their discussion by introduction to the economic position of India vis a vis Asia. The educational institutes of higher learning were discussed in details. The challenges and scope of Indian educational system were discussed. The quantitative and qualitative impacts of Indian educational system were discussed.

The lectures were given on time management, employability of graduates, basics of academic administration and other related topics. The participants were encouraged to ask questions. The experts gave their detailed viewpoints on the queries of the participants.

The participants were divided in different groups for Group Discussion and Case Study. The participants prepared a project on the Accreditation process of educational institutions.

The participants were taken for a field tour in the neighbourhood areas.

Dr. Y.S. Brar

Professor, Deptt. of Elect. Engg.

GNDEC Ludhiana