Spot Counselling

Spot counselling will be conducted daily (except Saturday and Sunday) from 14.10.20 till the last day of admission. Candidates interested to participate can participate in offline counselling at college or can opt for online mode. Physical presence of candidate is must for candidates participating in offline mode.

The candidates participating in counselling will have to pay one time Rs.1000/- non –refundable counselling fee but those candidates who have already paid Rs.1000/- counselling fee for previous rounds need not pay again.

Candidates opting for online mode (using admission.gndec.ac.in) will have to pay additional Rs.1000/- for every round of spot counselling (For example, for 1st round on 14.10.20 separately and 15.10.20 separately). After online receipt of Rs.1000/- only, candidate will be allowed to fill choices. Fresh choices will have to be filled by candidate for every spot counselling round. This amount will be adjustable in admission fee for new admission with full fee and not for any change of branch case. This amount will be refundable after the last date of admission if candidate does not pay the balance fee after he/she is offered branch as per the schedule of payment or is not offered branch of choice. For change of branch case, candidate will have to pay applicable fee (Rs.1000/Rs.3000 as the case may be) separately to confirm his/her seat.

Candidates participating in online mode will have to pay fee up to next day (up to 12 noon) otherwise seat will be cancelled, however in case of online allotment of seat.
